

Should St. Joseph and Elkhart be on different time zones, I believe it would be a major inconvenience for parents who live in Elkhart county who have school aged children. Mainly because of babysitting situations and after school activities, such as athletics and band and choir.

Thank you,

Larry V. Burdette